

Renter Support Guide

A guide for renters who need help with rental search, applications, leasing, and move-in steps.

Why your agent may share this

Your agent introduced HomeScoutz as a rental resource so you can get focused help with the rental side of your housing search.

How HomeScoutz can help

- Review your rental needs, timing, budget, and preferred areas.
- Help identify rental options that match your requirements.
- Coordinate next steps for tours, applications, and landlord communication.
- Help you understand what documents may be needed before applying.
- Keep the process organized from search through lease and move-in steps.

Information that helps

- Desired move-in date and preferred cities or neighborhoods.
- Budget range, bedroom count, pet needs, parking needs, and must-have features.
- Income, employment, voucher, or housing assistance details when applicable.
- Any application timing concerns, lease-end dates, or urgent deadlines.

What happens next

- HomeScoutz reviews your request and confirms the best rental support path.
- A team member may contact you to clarify needs, timing, and readiness.
- Once your rental criteria are clear, HomeScoutz helps coordinate the next practical steps.

Pricing note

This renter guide is informational. Any application fees, deposits, rent, or move-in costs are set by the property owner, landlord, or community.
